

Newcomer
Entrepreneurship
Support

Seizing new opportunities

Supporting newcomer entrepreneurship beyond the crisis

Outreach to migrant and refugee-run businesses
in a changing policy environment

Thursday, March 18th 2021

On-line mutual learning seminars, 12.00-13.30 CET

Welcome and background of the project

Alexander Wolffhardt, Migration Policy Group

JPMorgan Chase's role

Colleen Ebbitt, JP Morgan Chase

Introduction to the topic

Jonathan STEBIG, Grdr (Migration, citoyenneté, développement), France

Chair

Beth Ginsburg, Migration Policy Group

Panel 1: Coalitions for improved and comprehensive support ecosystems

In this panel we will explore how to encourage collaboration and network to improve the support ecosystem building with policy actors, including local and national authorities.

- ✓ Harry Goldman, NyföretagarCentrum, Sweden (tbc)
- ✓ Henriette Gruber, Social Impact Lab, Germany (tbc)
- ✓ Cameron Heenon, COSLA, UK (tbc)
- ✓ Matteo Matteini, Municipality of Milan, Italy (tbc)

Panel 2: Accessible services for inclusive entrepreneurship

This panel will address challenges for incubators and accelerators to access support services, focusing on solutions for newcomer enterprises. This will include the value of inclusive entrepreneurship, e.g. women-run, young entrepreneurs and hard-to-reach communities.

- ✓ Tina Marquart, jumpp - Frauenbetriebe e.V., Germany (tbc)
- ✓ Anna Mourlaque, Migracoop, France (tbc)
- ✓ Alison Partridge, Capital Enterprise, UK

Concluding remarks

Monder Ram, Centre for Research in Ethnic Minority Entrepreneurship, Aston University, UK

NES: next steps

Alexander Wolffhardt, Migration Policy Group

To participate, please click here to register